2. Philip L. Fraietta and Alec M. Leslie of Bursor & Fisher, P.A. and Scott R. Drury of Drury Legal, LLC shall serve as Class Counsel and, as such, shall represent the interests of plaintiff and all Settlement Class members in all future proceedings in this action.
3. Named plaintiffs Johnathon Mohr, Anna Gallini, Samuel Best, Stephanie Cissorsky, Maya Shengold, Eli Steiker-Ginzberg, Daniel Winikur, Lisa Watt, Ian Zolitor, Markeita Reid, and Colin Powers are appointed as Class Representatives of the Settlement Class defined in paragraph 1 above.
4. Epiq Class Action & Mass Tort Solutions is appointed as the “Settlement Administrator.” By accepting this assignment, the Settlement Administrator subjects itself to this Court’s jurisdiction.
5. The proposed Short Form and Long Form Notices and the Claim Form are approved with the modifications set forth below:
 - a. On page 2 of the Short Form Notice, the fourth sentence of the paragraph following “What Are My Other Options?” shall read as follows: “. . . If you want to object to the Settlement, you may mail or deliver an objection by [objection/exclusion deadline] to the Settlement Administrator. . . .”
 - b. On page 1 of the Long Form Notice at the bottom of the page following the “OBJECT BY [DATE]” box, the text should read as follows: “Submit a written objection explaining why you don’t like the Settlement.”
 - c. Under section 17 of the Long Form Notice following “How do I object to the Settlement,” the first paragraph should read as follows:

If you’re a Settlement Class Member, you can object to the Settlement if you don’t like any part of it. You can give reasons why you think the Court should not approve it. The Court will consider your views. To object, you should submit a written objection stating that you object to the Settlement in Mohr, et al. v. The Trustees of The University of Pennsylvania as Owner and Operator of The University of Pennsylvania Health System (d/b/a Penn Medicine), Case No. 230102149 and identify your reasons for your objections (including citations and supporting evidence) and attach any materials you rely on for your objections. Your written objection should also include your name, an explanation of the basis upon which you claim to be a Settlement Class Member, the name and contact information of any and all attorneys representing, advising, or in any way assisting you in connection with your objection, and your signature. You should mail or deliver your written objection no later than [objection/exclusion deadline] to the Settlement Administrator at:

Penn Pixel Privacy Settlement
0000 Street
City, ST 00000

- d. Under section 17 of the Long Form Notice following “How do I object to the Settlement,” the third paragraph should read as follows:

If you want to appear and speak at the Final Approval Hearing to object to the Settlement, with or without a lawyer (explained below in answer to Question Number 21), you should say so in your written objection that you send to the Settlement Administrator no later than [objection/exclusion deadline].

- e. Under section 17 of the Long Form Notice following “How do I object to the Settlement,” at the bottom, the boxes with the Court’s and counsels’ addresses should be deleted.

- f. Under section 21 of the Long Form Notice following “May I speak at the hearing,” the paragraph should read as follows:

You may appear and ask the Court for permission to speak at the Fairness Hearing. You should include any such request in your written objection to the Settlement along with your name, address, telephone number and signature, as well as the name and address of your lawyer, if one is appearing for you.

6. On or before June 29, 2026, defendant shall provide to the Settlement Administrator the contact information for the Settlement Class members as set forth in Paragraph 4.1(a) of the Settlement Agreement.

7. On or before July 15, 2026, the Settlement Administrator shall mail, email, and otherwise disseminate the Notices of Class Action Settlement to the Settlement Class members in the manner described in Paragraphs 4.1 of the Settlement Agreement.
8. The Settlement Class members should mail or deliver their objections to the settlement, if any, to the Settlement Administrator postmarked no later than September 1, 2026. Settlement Class members should NOT be directed to file their objections directly with the Court. Class Counsel shall file copies of any such objections of record in connection with the motion for final approval of the settlement.
9. The putative Settlement Class members should mail or submit their requests for exclusion from the Settlement Class, if any, to the Settlement Administrator postmarked no later than September 1, 2026.
10. The Settlement Class members should be encouraged to submit their Claim Forms electronically through the class website, or they should mail their Claim Forms to the Settlement Administrator postmarked, by September 16, 2026.
11. On or before November 6, 2026, Class Counsel shall file a motion for final approval of the settlement, which shall include the following:
 - a. an affidavit regarding the sending of notice;
 - b. a list of class members who requested exclusion from the settlement;
 - c. a list of class members who objected to the settlement, copies of all objections received, and the parties' responses to any objections;
 - d. the number of Claim Forms submitted, the number deemed deficient by the Settlement Administrator, the number cured, and the number of challenged deficiency determinations submitted to The Honorable Diane M. Welsh (Ret.)

for binding determination;

- e. the total value of all claims to date to be paid by defendant in connection with the submitted Claim Forms;
- f. support for the requested attorney's fees and costs to be paid in connection with the settlement.

12. A virtual Final Approval Hearing will be conducted via Zoom on November 12, 2026, at 2:00 p.m.¹ At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will consider the parties' arguments in favor of final approval of the settlement, will consider any objections, and may hear argument from any individual who wishes to be heard.

13. The Court may continue the Final Approval Hearing without further written notice to the class members, but the Settlement Administrator must provide notice of any rescheduled hearing date to any Settlement Class member who filed an objection.

BY THE COURT:

PAULA A. PATRICK, S. J.
